**Topic: What is the difference between a solicitor and a barrister?** A solicitor is a lawyer who provides legal advice and representation to clients. The main difference between a solicitor and a barrister is the level of court in which they can appear. Solicitors can represent clients in the lower courts, while barristers can only appear in the higher courts. Another difference between solicitors and barristers is the way they are paid. Solicitors are typically paid by their clients, while barristers are paid by the court. **Topic: How do I find a good lawyer?** Once you have found a few lawyers that you are interested in, you can schedule a consultation to meet with them and discuss your case. **Topic: How much does it cost to hire a lawyer?** The cost of hiring a lawyer can vary depending on the type of law they practice, the complexity of your case, and the experience of the lawyer. With a contingency fee arrangement, the lawyer only gets paid if you win your case. If you are arrested, you should remain calm and do not say anything to the police without first consulting with a lawyer. **Topic: What is the difference between a criminal case and a civil case?****
